JERSEY'S OLDEST MAN CELEBRATES 101ST BIRTHDAY

William Rankin of Summit Is Also Oldest College Graduate in United States.

IS STILL ABLE TO READ.

Moves About With Ease and Takes a Drive Every Fine Afternoon.

(Special to The Evening World.) SUMMIT, N. J., Sept. 16.—Jersey's oldet resident and the oldest living college graduate in the United States, William Rankin, is celebrating his one hundred and first birthday quietly to-day at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ellen R. Bliss, in the Valley View road. In past years there have been family reunions on the occasion of his borthday, and neighbors from the country round have come to congratulate him, but his advanced years render this impracticable

That isn't easing that the old gentleman is still active. He is able to move about freely without assistance and takes a drive every afternoon if the weather is fine. His hearing isn't good, but he's still able to read, and when a reporter saw him to-day he was glimpsing a daily paper.

"I still take interest in the news of the day," said he, "only it seems now as if there isn't anything much in the papers except stories of crimes and We got on just as well in the old days when we had to wait several days for a newspaper. Then there wouldn't be much in it except crop reports and some gossip about the doings at Washington.

Everything's got to be done in a harry nowadays. We've got trolley and airships and automobiles. I haw that Ward fellow in his airship the other day. They've come to stay, I think all the sensible women are satisfied to remain at home and attend to their household duties. There are plenty of honest capable men who are doing their best for the advancement of the people. I think in the long run they can do the job a little better than the women."

women.

Mr. Rankin is a lawyer. He practised law for a time with President Tafit's father. Alphonsus Taft.

I like President Taft. said he this morning, because he seems to have what a lot of people lack-good sense."

Mr. Hankin was born in Elizabeth when it was known as Elizabethtown. He was graduated from Williams Col-lege in 1831. He lives in Princeton during the winter months. One of his sons, Dr. Walter Rankin, is professor of biology there. His other two sons are Rev. J. J. Rankin of Scranton, Pa., and E. S. Rankin, a member of the Newarwater board.
